INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES:

- ✓ This paper consists of two sections A and B. It has 4 assessment items
- ✓ Section A is compulsory
- ✓ Answer one item from section B
- ✓ Answer three assessment items in all
- ✓ Any additional items answered will not be marked

SECTION A
(Section A is compulsory.)

Item 1.

The Royal tombs of Buganda at Kasubi were set on fire by unknown strangers and very many items were completely destroyed. The police and other security agencies made efforts to find out the actual cause of this fire but their efforts remained futile.

Many Ugandans came up with arguments over this event that the tombs should be removed so that an industry is put up to provide employment to the people. However, UNESCO has insisted that the tombs should be renovated and maintained.

Support material:

Front view of the Kasubi Royal tombs in Buganda as of 2012.

Task

Support UNESCO's idea.

Item 2.

A section of university students from one of the universities in East Africa, College of Humanities, Department of History, have embarked on research in different secondary schools in Uganda. The theme for their research is "Understanding the Economic Impact of Colonialism in East Africa." Some of these students are coming to your school to learn about the features of the colonial economy in Uganda. The History Department has identified you to speak to them.

Construction of Uganda railway

Task

Write an essay you will use to speak to the above students.

SECTION B

(Attempt any one question from this section.)

Item 3.

A section of the people of Kamyanye village are against activities of a Christian religious group from Germany. They petitioned the local government of the area to block its operations in their community citing challenges like noise pollution, fraud by pastors, and spread of gay-related activities among others.

However, majority of the people in the area are of the view that despite the above challenges, religion plays a significant role in the development of the community as such, the Christian group should be left to carry out their activities.

Task

Write an essay to convince the people in Kamyange to welcome the activities of the Christian group.

Item 4.

Ugandans celebrate Independence Day, but many don't know about important people like Dr.

Apollo Milton Obote, Ignatius K. Musaazi, and Benedicto Kiwanuka, who helped a lot.

The government wants to fix this by writing about these people. The government through local leaders, wants to teach people about this and show respect for those who made the country what it is today. In your community, you have been identified to focus on Dr. Obote's part in Uganda becoming independent.

support material:

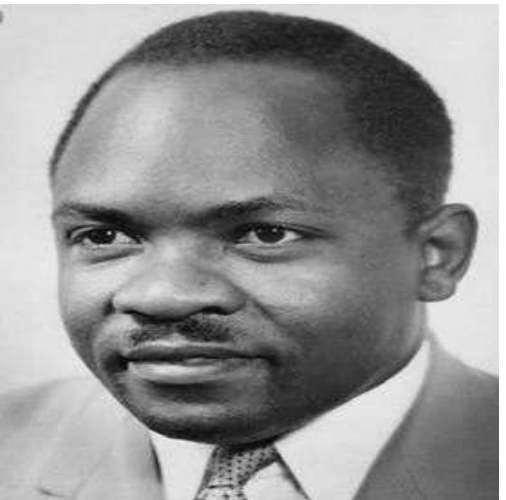

Photos of Dr Milton Obote (A), I.K Musaazi (B) and Bendicto Kiwanuka.

A)

B)

C)

Task

Write an essay to teach the people in your community about the above.
